CHICAGO, December 5, 1871.

To the Officers of the Germania, Hanover, Niagara and Republic Fire Ins. Co.'s of New York.

GENTLEMEN: The course pursued by your Companies in the adjustment and payment of our own claims, and so far as we know, of ALL claims for losses in the great fire in Chicago, has been so highly honorable, prompt and straightforward, and marked by such apparent desire to deal justly towards all parties, under all circumstances, that we desire voluntarily to acknowledge it to the business public. We conceive that no stronger test could be made, both of the responsibility and of the integrity of an Insurance organization, than yours has passed through here successfully and creditably. With an unimpaired Capital and undiminished responsibility, and a record for equitable settlement, certainly surpassed by none, we congratulate you on the career of future prosperity, to which your actions here have so justly entitled you, and remain,

A VISIT TO NAZARETH.

Experience of a Clergyman in that City.

Rev. J. B. Dunn, writing to the Boston Traveler, gives the following description of Nazareth: The situation of Nazareth is very pleasant, the people are better dressed and the women handsomer than any we have yet seen in the East. What a pity we must add the streets are the dirtiest, an open sewer running through many of them. We of course visited the house where it is said Jesus and His parents lived; also Joseph's workshop, where we saw the pictures of Mary and her Son, dressed in modern costume, and Joseph at work before a carpenter's bench, on which lay tools of modern invention. Toward sunset we ascended the hill, from the top of which are to be had the finest views of any in Palestine. On reaching our tent we found our favorite muleteer, Safada, and his brother Francis, both of whom are Mohammedans, had given an Arab a severe thrashing because the Arab cursed the Christians and our party. One of the most interesting sights to be seen at Nazareth is the crowd of young women and girls that, between the hours of 5 and 8 in the evening, flock to the public fountain, with their pitcher on their heads to draw water.

The night spent here was a memorable one, for scarce had we retired to our tents when a small army of big mosquitoes came down upon us and laid siege to our persons, nor could we drive them away till morning called us forth to begin another day's journey—a day during which we rode through the valley of Esdraleon, crossed the Kishbon, where Baal's prophets were slain, ascended Carmel to the supposed point of sacrafice, where we spent some time in trying to reconcile the Bible and our guide books, but failed, when, putting the latter in our saddle-bags, and taking the former in our hands, we continued our explorations. Leaving Carmel, we rode across the plain to Haifa, where, after bathing in the Mediterranean, we passed the night under wet tents and on borrowed beds, as our baggage mules on crossing the Kisbon had their feet taken from under them, the baggage upset and thoroughly soaked, as some of my things to-day testify.

FEMININE AMENITIES.

If women, perhaps better than men, know how to do things insolent to each other, so do they know how to resent impertinences. An American lady traveling in Switzerland tells this dinner-table story:

I had seen enough of traveling English, of whom the party at the table was principally composed, to know how to treat them; so I entirely ignored their presence, placidly gazing out of the window in the interval of the courses, on long, straggling St. Goarhausen opposite. This had its effect in the increased respect of all glances, except those from a pair of bold black eyes opposite me, whose owner observed to her husband in a loud tone, "One of the people of the country, I suppose." "My dear," murmured the gentleman, "take care; the lady may understand English." "Not likely!" in a tone of infinite disdain. "Oh! ah! one can never be too careful. So many of our people go to Paris, don't you know, that the French must pick up a little of our lingo." "I don't think her French," remarked the lady, her gaze broadly fixed on me. She proceeded with some very free and impertinent remarks. At the conclusion of the meal I wanted some comfitures that stood near this lady, and the waiters had all left the room. I looked directly at her, and said in my best English, "Madame, may I trouble you to hand me those bonbons?" If you could have seen the woman's face! It turned white, her jaw dropped, and she stared blankly, utterly unable to comply with my request. Her husband snatched up the plate and handed it to me with a bow, and I ate my confectionery with an innocent air in the midst of a dead silence.

GREELEYISM is bearing fruit in the South. In addition to the outrages at Milton and Yanceville, N. C. we have news that the Ku-Klux are actively at work for the Tammany candidate in Lowndes county, Alabama. At this place they visited a prominent Democrat who had announced that he could not support Greeley, and warned him that he must do it or leave the country. These premonitory symptoms indicate how the disease would rage in all the South, were Greeley to happen to be elected.

IT is said there are in Russia no less than fifty million acres of land which will yield 5,000 tons of phosphate of lime to the acre. This contains twenty per cent. of phosphoric acid. The decay of the guano trade is evidently destined to have little effect upon the agriculture of the world, for that manure will be replaced by artificially prepared phosphates.

THE whipping post is still used in Chili, and one man recently received fifteen hundred lashes to make him confess a robbery, dying, of course.

A ONCE popular clergyman is now a teamster at Des Moines hauling stones instead of finding sermons in them.

THE PLATFORM.

The following is the Platform adopted by the National Republican Convention at Philadelphia:

The Republican party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country.

1. During the eleven years of its supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated 4,000,000 slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage, exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity. It criminally punished no man for political offense, and warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily decreased with a firm hand the resultant disorders of the great war, and indicated a wise policy towards the Indians. The Pacific railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generally aided and successfully conducted. The public lands have been freely given to actual settlers, immigration protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of naturalized citizens' rights secured from European powers. A uniform national currency has been provided, repudiation frowned down, the national credit sustained under the most extraordinary burdens, and new bonds negotiated at lower rates. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied; despite the annual large reductions of the rates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during Gen. Grant's Presidency at the rate of one hundred millions of dollars a year; a great financial crisis has been averted, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the nation kept in high respect throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the paryt's best pledge for the future. We believe the people will not intrust the government to any party or combination of men composed chiefly of those who have resisted every step of this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and federal legislation. Neither the law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to any citizen by reason of race, creed, color or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained, because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are the law, and should be carried out, according to their spirit, by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured those amendments.

4. The national government should seek to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the government are considered rewards for mere party zeal is fitly demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system by laws which shall abolish the evils of patronage, and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a life tenure of office.

6. We are opposed to the further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the national domain be set apart for free homes for the people.

7. The annual revenues, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal, and the revenue, except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, should be raised by duties on importations, the duties of which should be so adjusted as to aid in securing remunerative wages to labor, and promote the industries, growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for their country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people, and we favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the line of duty became disabled, without regard to the length of time or cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers, concerning allegiance, "once a subject, always a subject," having at last through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of an individuals's right to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former governments, and we urge continual and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary immigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and the way prepared for a speedy reduction in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of so shaping legislation as to secure full protection and the amplest field for capital, and for labor, the creator of capital, the largest opportunities, and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an imperative duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions, and for the protection of the ballot box, and therefore are entitled to the thanks of the nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of the public debt, in any form or disguise, as a national crime, and we witness with pride the reduction of the principal of the debt and upon the rates of interest upon the balance, and we confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by the speedy resumption of specie payments.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, and their admission to wider fields of usefulness is received with satisfaction; and the demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve the actions of Congress in extending amnesty to those lately in rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party propose to respect the rights reserved by the people themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to State and to federal government. It disapproves of a resort to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or national government.

17. It is the duty of the general government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustious services of Ulysses S. Grant have commended him to the hearts of the American people, and with him at our head we start to day on a new march to victory.

A VISIT TO NAZARETH.

Experience of a Clergyman in that City.

Rev. J. B. Dunn, writing to the Boston Traveler, gives the following description of Nazareth: The situation of Nazareth is very pleasant, the people are better dressed and the women handsomer than any we have yet seen in the East. What a pity we must add the streets are the dirtiest, an open sewer running through many of them. We of course visited the house where it is said Jesus and His parents lived; also Joseph's workshop, where we saw the pictures of Mary and her Son, dressed in modern costume, and Joseph at work before a carpenter's bench, on which lay tools of modern invention. Toward sunset we ascended the hill, from the top of which are to be had the finest views of any in Palestine. On reaching our tent we found our favorite muleteer, Safada, and his brother Francis, both of whom are Mohammedans, had given an Arab a severe thrashing because the Arab cursed the Christians and our party. One of the most interesting sights to be seen at Nazareth is the crowd of young women and girls that, between the hours of 5 and 8 in the evening, flock to the public fountain, with their pitcher on their heads to draw water.

The night spent here was a memorable one, for scarce had we retired to our tents when a small army of big musquitoes came down upon us and laid siege to our persons, nor could we drive them away till morning called us forth to begin another day's journey—a day during which we rode through the valley of Esdraleon, crossed the Kishbon, where Baal's prophets were slain, ascended Carmel to the supposed point of sacrafice, where we spent some time in trying to reconcile the Bible and our guide books, but failed, when, putting the latter in our saddle-bags, and taking the former in our hands, we continued our explorations. Leaving Carmel, we rode across the plain to Haifa, where, after bathing in the Mediterranean, we passed the night under wet tents and on borrowed beds, as our baggage mules on crossing the Kisbon had their feet taken from under them, the baggage upset and thoroughly soaked, as some of my things to-day testify.

FEMININE AMENITIES.

If women, perhaps better than men, know how to do things insolent to each other, so do they know now to resent impertinences. An American lady traveling in Switzerland tells this dinner-table story:

I had seen enough of traveling English, of whom the party at the table was principally composed, to know how to treat them; so I entirely ignored their presence, placidly gazing out of the window in the interval of the courses, on long, straggling St. Goarhausen opposite. This had its effect in the increased respect of all glances, except those from a pair of bold black eyes opposite me, whose owner observed to her husband in a loud tone, "One of the people of the country, I suppose." "My dear," murmured the gentleman, "take care; the lady may understand English." "Not likely!" in a tone of infinite disdain. "Oh! ah! one can never be too careful. So many of our people go to Paris, don't you know, that the French must pick up a little of our lingo." "I don't think her French," remarked the lady, her gaze broadly fixed on me. She proceeded with some very free and impertinent remarks. At the conclusion of the meal I wanted some comfitures that stood near this lady, and the waiters had all left the room. I looked directly at her, and said in my best English, "Madame, may I trouble you to hand me those bonbons?" If you could have seen the woman's face! It turned white, her jaw dropped, and she stared blankly, utterly unable to comply with my request. Her husband snatched up the plate and handed it to me with a bow, and I ate my confectionery with an innocent air in the midst of a dead silence.

GREELEYISM is bearing fruit in the South. In addition to the outrages at Milton and Yanceville, N. C. we have news that the Ku-Klux are actively at work for the Tammany candidate in Lowndes county, Alabama. At this place they visited a prominent Democrat who had announced that he could not support Greeley, and warned him that he must do it or leave the country. These premonitory symptoms indicate how the disease would rage in all the South, were Greeley to happen to be elected.

IT is said there are in Russia no less than fifty million acres of land which will yield 5,000 tons of phosphate of lime to the acre. This contains twenty per cent. of phosphoric acid. The decay of the guano trade is evidently destined to have little effect upon the agriculture of the world, for that manure will be replaced by artificially prepared phosphates.

THE whipping post is still used in Chili, and one man recently received fifteen hundred lashes to make him confess a robbery, dying, of course.

A ONCE popular clergyman is now a teamster at Des Moines hauling stones instead of finding sermons in them.

THE PLATFORM.

The following is the Platform adopted by the National Republican Convention at Philadelphia:

The Republican party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country.

1. During the eleven years of its supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated 4,000,000 slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage, exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity. It criminally punished no man for political offense, and warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily decreased with a firm hand the resultant disorders of the great war, and indicated a wise policy towards the Indians. The Pacific railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generally aided and successfully conducted. The public lands have been freely given to actual settlers, immigration protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of naturalized citizens' rights secured from European powers. A uniform national currency has been provided, repudiation frowned down, the national credit sustained under the most extraordinary burdens, and new bonds negotiated at lower rates. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied; despite the annual large reductions of the rates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during Gen. Grant's Presidency at the rate of one hundred millions of dollars a year; a great financial crisis has been averted, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the nation kept in high respect throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future. We believe the people will not intrust the government to any party or combination of men composed chiefly of those who have resisted every step of this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and federal legislation. Neither the law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to any citizen by reason of race, creed, color or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained, because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are the law, and should be carried out, according to their spirit, by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured those amendments.

4. The national government should seek to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the government are considered rewards for mere party zeal is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system by laws which shall abolish the evils of patronage, and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a life tenure of office.

6. We are opposed to the further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the national domain be set apart for free homes for the people.

7. The annual revenues, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal, and the revenue, except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, should be raised by duties on importations, the duties of which should be so adjusted as to aid in securing remunerative wages to labor, and promote the industries, growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for their country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people, and we favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the line of duty became disabled, without regard to the length of time or cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers, concerning allegiance, "once a subject, always a subject," having at last through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of an individual's right to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former governments, and we urge continual and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary immigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and the way prepared for a speedy reduction in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of so shaping legislation as to secure full protection and the amplest field for capital, and for labor, the creator of capital, the largest opportunities, and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an imperative duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions, and for the protection of the ballot box, and therefore are entitled to the thanks of the nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of the public debt, in any form or disguise, as a national crime, and we witness with pride the reduction of the principle of the debt, and upon the rates of interest upon the balance, and we confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by the speedy resumption of specie payments.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, and their admission to wider fields of usefulness is received with satisfaction; and the demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve the actions of Congress in extending amnesty to those lately in rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party propose to respect the rights reserved by the people themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to State and to federal government. It disapproves of a resort to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or national government.

17. It is the duty of the general government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of Ulysses S. Grant have commended him to the hearts of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory.

"We like General Grant; but we care far more for Republican ascendancy than for any man's personal fortunes. It is in our view of great importance that the opposition shall be kept out of power. For a Democratic national triumph means a restoration to power of those who deserted their seats in Congress and their places under the last Democratic President, to plunge the country into the Red Sea of secession and Rebellion. Though you paint an inch thick, to this complexion you must come at last. The brain, the heart, the soul of the present Democratic party is the rebel element of the South with its northern allies and sympathizers. It is rebel at the core to-day."—HORACE GREELEY.

PRIMARY ELECTION.

Decatur Township.

The Republicans of Decatur Township who favor the election of Grant and Wilson, will assemble on

The polls will be open from 3 o'clock, p. m., until 7½ o'clock.

By order of the Township Committee.

E. M. MISNER, Chairman.

W. C. JOHNS, Sec'y.

CONFIRMATION.—In our paper of yesterday appeared an article from the Chicago Journal, concerning Horace Greeley's record as a Know-Nothing.—A well-known gentleman of this city called at our office last evening, and stated that he was present at the meeting held at Kingston, N. Y., in 1858, and heard the speeches made on that occasion by Joel T. Headley, Horace Greeley, and Daniel Ullman, the last mentioned being the Know Nothing candidate for Governor. He says that he distinctly remembers the resolution adopted at that meeting, in favor of "excluding the foreign-born citizen from the right to vote in the State until he shall have resided in it as long as an American-born citizen exercising the same franchise," and Mr. Greeley's endorsement of that sentiment in his speech.

Probably some of the Greeley orators, who are just now engaged in the work of coaxing the foreign-born citizens to vote for their chief, can give some satisfactory explanation of this matter.—Don't all speak at once.

DEACON BROSS has been bamboozled into the support of Greeley by a promise that when Horace White goes abroad as French Minister he will be promoted to the chief editorship of the Chicago Tribune.

A REFORM NEEDED.

One of the most serious charges brought against Republican office holders by the Democratic press and speakers, is that they have wantonly violated law, and trampled upon the rights of the people. However little truth there may be in the majority of these charges, it is nevertheless true that upon them our opponents mainly rely for success. They assert, for instance, as the "Liberal" organ of this city did a few days ago, that Gov. Oglesby, while in office, misappropriated the public funds, and drew from the treasury large sums of money for his private uses. Knowing the charge to be false in every particular, they still hope that it may operate in their favor before it can be contradicted and its fallacy exposed.

But let us see whether the official integrity of some of the "Liberal" leaders is entirely without blemish—so pure indeed as to warrant them in attacking the acts of their Republican opponents. In 1871 Hon. Gustavus Kœrner, the coalition candidate for Governor, received from Gov. Palmer the appointment of Railroad Commissioner, and for his services in that capacity draws from the State treasury an annual salary of $3500. The second section of the law under which he was appointed provides that "no person appointed as such Commissioner shall, during his term of office, be in any manner employed by or connected with any railroad company."

The reason for this provision is obvious, but Mr. Kœrner, in the very face of the prohibition quoted, has continued to act as an attorney in railroad cases before the circuit court of St. Clair county. It is true that he has not been the regular attorney of a railroad corporation, but his son and law partner, Gustavus A. Kœrner, is the attorney of one of the roads passing through Belleville, and as such has the advice and assistance of his father in the preparation and conducting of cases. The Belleville Advocate of last Friday, in speaking of this matter, says:

Being a member of the Legislature, which was in session for many months during the past two years, G. A. Kœrner was necessarily absent when the terms of the St. Clair Circuit Court were held. In his absence, Gov. Kœrner frequently appeared for the Illinois and St. Louis Railroad in court, usually, however, excusing himself by stating that his son, who was attorney for the road, was at Springfield. In one case the Governor argued a demurrer to a declaration filed on behalf of the railroad company, and on its being overruled he re filed pleas, one of which was written in his own hand-writing, and signed by the firm name G. & G. A. Kœrner. In another, a motion having been made to dismiss an appeal, taken by said railroad company, for want of a sufficient bond, Gov. Kœrner argued the motion, for the company, entered a cross-motion to amend, and filed a new bond, with himself as security, for the railroad company.

In these and other cases the railroad company had the advantage of the great legal knowledge and skill of Gov. Kœrner, without remuneration doubtless, the only consideration moving the Governor being the natural one of love and affection for his son. Yet his appearance for the road in the absence of his son was an unintentional violation of the spirit of the law, which manifestly intends that these officers should keep in a position to act with the utmost impartiality toward all the railroads in the State.

In view of this flagrant violation of law upon the part of one of the Railroad Commissioners, is it to be wondered at that the hopes of relief from the grinding oppressions of railroad corporations, which this law had caused the people to cherish, should be so cruelly dashed to the earth? Is it any wonder that the law has failed to accomplish the reforms aimed at, when one of the officers entrusted with its execution so signally fails in his duty? And does it argue very much for "reform" when this same recusant officer comes before the people, asking for the highest office in their gift? Gov. Palmer is a great stickler for a strict observance of law. He is also the self-appointed champion of the people, in their contest with the railroads, and professes to be an enthusiastic advocate of the doctrine of State control over railroad corporations. But he appointed Gustavus Kœrner as one of the agents of the people to carry out this great principle of reform, and though the latter persistently violates the law under and by virtue of which he holds his office, our great "Reform" Governor not only continues him in the position but favors his election to a still higher office.

But the people will repudiate both in November.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

The many friends of the Hon. W. T. Moffett are exceedingly anxious that he should become a candidate for re election as one of the representatives in the legislature from this district Mr. Moffett, during the sessions of the last legislature, proved himself to be a careful, attentive, and intelligent representative. Not given to making speeches he nevertheless made his influence felt in the House, and long before the close of the first session he had succeeded in winning for himself the respect and confidence of all the members. His re-election would be a fitting recognition of his services, and would be in every way satisfactory to the Republicans of this county.

Mr. J. H. Pickrell, of Harristown, has also been spoken of as a suitable candidate for Representative, and his friends throughout the country are exceedingly anxious that he should be nominated. Mr. Pickrell is too well known to need any endorsement at our hands. Engaged as he has been all his life in one or the leading industries of the country; he has formed an extensive acquaintance, not only throughout the State, but in nearly every portion of the Union. He has probably had as fine opportunities for forming correct opinions concerning the wants of the people of this State as any man in it, and being a gentleman of the broadest views and the most comprehensive intelligence he would make an able and efficient representative. He has always been a Republican, and is in every respect a most worthy man. If nominated he would receive the cordial support of the party.

FRANCE.

PARIS, July 29.—The new French loan was placed upon the public market yesterday. Before the close of the day it was announced that the full amount had been taken up and the subscription books closed.

The committee appointed by the Assembly to report on the proposal to purchase the Parrot Battery from the American government has delivered its report.

A fierce attack was made on M. Gambetta and Noquette, which will probably be provocative of an excited discussion in the Assembly.

LATER.—The new loan is already regarded in financial circles as an unprecedented success. Advices from every part of the country where subscription lists were opened to the public state that double the amount required could have been subscribed. The promptitude with which the capitalists of the country advanced to the support of the government shares, is a favorable augury for the ultimate success of M. Thiers' financial project.

SWITZERLAND.

GENEVA, July 29.

A decision has been rendered by the court of arbitration in the case of the privateer Florida, fixing the liability of England to America at five hundred thousand pounds sterling as damages for the depredations committed by that vessel. At its session to-day the court will take up the case of the Alabama, now under consideration. A majority of the members of the court of arbitration hold that interest on sums claimed by the United States should not be allowed. Instead of awarding a sum and interest, it is proposed to lump the sum for indemnification.

BELGIUM.

BRUSSELS, July 29.—The Independence Belge, in its issue to-day, announces that the total sum to be awarded by the Geneva court of arbitration to the American government, in lieu of all damages, will not exceed the sum of one million five hundred thousand pounds sterling.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Mr. John H. B. Latrobe, in Baltimore, who is charged with being concerned in the frauds perpetrated upon the Chickasaws, Choctaws, and other Indians residing in the Indian Territory, being absent from the city, Mr. Fred. Latrobe publishes a long statement regarding the affairs.

Since the purchase by the Secretary of the Treasury of the rebel archives, from John L. Pickett, a considerable amount of money has been saved to the government in the case of claims coming up from the South. In a single case $125,000 was saved to the government by the evidence gathered from Pickett's collection. A claim had been backed by twenty witnesses before the commission, but had all the appearance of being just, when a letter found among the archives established beyond a cavil that the witnesses had perjured themselves, and that the claimant had been in the rebel service at the very time he claimed to have been making sacrifices for the Union cause.

Gen. Sherman is expected to return here from Europe about the 5th of September.

Gen. J. B. Weaver, who presided over the Iowa Republican Convention, writes a letter to a cabinet officer here, denying the report of his going over to Greeley and Brown.

Our naval fleet in the Pacific, which has heretofore been under the command of one rear admiral, will very shortly be divided into two squadrons—a northern and southern—and a rear admiral assigned to the command of each. Rear admiral Steedon, now in command of the Portsmouth, N. H., navy-yard, will be assigned to the command of one. The other commander has not yet been selected.

Postmaster General Creswell and Senator Chandler left here last night, and will go directly to Detroit, Mich., where both will speak on Wednesday next. They expect to deliver speeches at Jackson, Mich., on Thursday. Mr. Cresswell expects to return here on Saturday.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Ex-Mayor Bowen has printed a very bitter attack on the President, charging that the letter swindled him in the purchase of a house in this city. The facts in the house matter are that Bowen bargained with Gen. Grant, and paid one thousand dollars down to bind the purchase, after gentlemen concerned in the purchase of the house to be presented to Gen. Sherman had pitched upon this house as the one they particularly wanted, and it was purchased of General Grant, Bowen taking his one thousand dollars back, and Mr. and Mrs. Bowen both signing a deed of release. Bowen has been pleading his accommodation in this matter as a means of obtaining office for several years. During the past winter he was a persistent applicant for the position of Minister to the Argentine Republic, and the late appointment of White of Illinois instead is the immediate cause of Bowen's attack. He has also tried hard to be made Minister to Brazil.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 30.—The Herald's special from Matamoras, July 20th, says: Gen. Rocha has levied a forced loan of $80,000 on merchants of Monterey, payable with his drafts, drawn principally on the treasury. The balance of dues recorded against the Monterey custom house, and amount of dues which have accrued and arrived at Monterey, will be received in payment of government duties. The country just now is in a worse condition than ever before. The custom house at Vera Cruz owes to the merchants half a million dollars; Tampico is largely indebted to the same class; Matamoras has a like difficulty and money burden. The collector assumes a hostile position against the merchants at Matamoras. It is supposed by them that he is in the interest of the traders of Vera Cruz and Tampico. Popular reaction is strong in favor of Tejada as the President's successor, and the country generally is quieting down.

NEW YORK, July 29.—A gentleman who has just returned home from St. Petersburg, stated yesterday that Minister Curtin, whom he met repeatedly in the Russian capital, considers that Greeley has no chance against Grant.

Several speakers left the Liberal Republican headquarters to-day for various parts of the country, and more will follow as fast as they can be obtained. It is positively stated that large sums of money have been sent from these headquarters to carry the election in North Carolina. It is asserted that the notorious Wood and Bluemenberg have been sent there as special envoys, to use nefarious means to influence the election. Major Staples, headquarters secretary, has been for some time past engaged in hoisting the appointments of various orators who are to take the stump for Greeley.

A special from North Carolina says that since the nomination of Greeley at Baltimore, old members of the Ku-Klux have picked up such courage as mobbed Harriman, and I have eye witnesses that on Tuesday night the Klan rode their midnight rounds in the old fiendish disguises, in Chatham county, rousing scores of negroes from their beds and bidding them beware, but for that time attempting no further outrage; and the same special says the Baltimore negroes, Saunders and Howatt, who were sent here by the Liberal Republican Committee, have been for several days prowling about the back settlements of several counties endeavoring to seduce negroes into voting the Ku Klux ticket, but without success. Yesterday they appeared at Henderson, and evidence was obtained that they had in many cases offered poor negroes sums of money, running all the way from ten to fifty dollars to vote for the Democrats.

FROM CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, July 30.—Mayor Medill last night announced to the Common Council that he had removed W. W. Kennedy from office as police superintendent, and appointed in his place Elmer Washburn, late warden State Penitentiary. The Council have not yet acted on the appointment.

Berthold G. Stuner, who was associated with Chas. H. W. Gedham in the management of the French band concerts here and at Cincinnati, has suddenly disappeared. He was to go on to Pittsburg to arrange for the coming of the band, but on reaching there Mr. S. W. Gredham could learn nothing of him. He had $20,000 in his hands, the proceeds of concerts, and it is believed he has decamped or been waylaid and robbed. Detectives are after him.

CHICAGO, July 29.—The Liberals opened the campaign this evening under flattering auspices. Two stands were erected in an open space on Market street, and speedily surrounded by an audience estimated at from 5,000 to 8,000. Speeches were made by Hon. Thomas Hoyne, who reviewed the political situation; ex-Gov. Blair, of Michigan, who arraigned Grant and his administration; Senator Trumbull, who confined himself to the exposition of the financial policy of Boutwell; and Hon. Gustavus Koerner. The latter said neither he, nor those for whom he spoke, wished to depreciate the great services of Grant as a military leader, nor cast stigma upon the noble army which maintained the Union intact. He had belonged to the Republican party almost from its inception, and advocated its cause almost at the peril of his life. New issues have sprung up, and old parties are dissolving to make room for new ones. The President has surrounded himself with corrupt political tricksters and reckless military pets. The Liberal movement is inaugurated as a remedy for these evils; it is founded on the aspirations of a large majority of the American people; and Horace Greeley's election is a forgone conclusion.

In response to loud calls, John Wentworth made a characteristic speech in support of Greeley.

The crowd dispersed shortly after 11 o'clock, with cheers for the Liberal ticket.

THE following is from the Washington Republican. Is it not a startling condemnation of the Democracy, and of Mr. Greeley, that the murderers, robbers and villains of the confederacy are unanimous for him? How do Republicans relish such companionship?

Colonel Leventhorpe, of Caldwell, is the candidate for Auditor on Mr Greeley's ticket in North Carolina. During the late war he commanded a rebel regiment and won the distinction of the most brutal and inhuman monster that ever wore a confederate's uniform. His military career in Randolph county, in that State, placed him on the same eminence of infamy with Wirz and Bradley Johnson. Randolph county was during the late rebellion a steadfast Union county, and refused to be drawn in to the vortex of secession. The majority of her citizens not only refused to enter the rebel service, but when they were drafted fled into the woods. The confederate authorities finally determined to bring Randolph to terms, and the gallant Leventhorp was selected as the fitting instrument to carry out the inhuman orders that were given him. With a regiment of soldiers he marched into that county and arrested the wives and daughters of every man who had shown his devotion to the Union by refusing to bear arms against his country.

This scoundrel, whom the New York Tribune is now endeavoring to elect Auditor of North Carolina, imprisoned these women in a pen, and for days and days deprived them of the common necessaries of life that he might extort a confession of the place of concealment of their husbands and fathers. The sufferings that these unfortunate women underwent at the hands of this military monster Leventhorpe form the darkest chapter in the history of the war. Many of them while they were thus incarcerated gave birth to children, and were made in a thousand ways to endure the most horrible torments. As a last resort to make them disclose their secrets he compelled them to place their thumbs on the edge of a fence and upon a board placed over their fingers in this position ordered his soldiers to seat themselves. All this is a matter of record and cannot be successfully denied. This is one of the men with whom Mr Greeley is so anxious to shake hands across the bloody chasm.

We would call the attention of our readers to the sale of marble mantles, hearthstones, tablets, gravestones and vases, now offered by R. B. Moleyan, at No. 15 Priest's Block. This well merits the attention of the citizens of Decatur; it is the best, as well as most beautiful, ever offered in this city, and will be sold at cost, for one week. July 27d1w

"We are led by him who first taught our armies to conquer in the West, and subsequently in the East also. Richmond would not come to us till we sent Grant after it, and then it had to come. He has never yet been defeated, and he never will be."—HORACE GREELEY.

"We like General Grant; but we care far more for Republican ascendancy than for any man's personal fortunes. It is in our view of great importance that the opposition shall be kept out of power. For a Democratic national triumph means a restoration to power of those who deserted their seats in Congress and their places under the last Democratic President, to plunge the country into the Red Sea of secession and Rebellion. Though you paint an inch thick, to this complexion you must come at last. The brain, the heart, the soul of the present Democratic party is the rebel element of the South with its northern allies and sympathizers. It is rebel at the core to-day."—HORACE GREELEY.

By order of the Township Committee.
E. M. MISNER, Chairman.
W. P. JOHNS, Sec'y.

CONFIRMATION.—In our paper of yesterday appeared an article from the Chicago Journal, concerning Horace Greeley's record as a Know-Nothing.—A well-known gentleman of this city called at our office last evening, and stated that he was present at the meeting held at Kingston, N. Y., in 1858, and heard the speeches made on that occasion by Joel T. Headley, Horace Greeley, and Daniel Ullman, the last mentioned being the Know Nothing candidate for Governor. He says that he distinctly remembers the resolution adopted at that meeting, in favor of "excluding the foreign-born citizen from the right to vote in the State until he shall have resided in it as long as an American-born citizen exercising the same franchise," and Mr. Greeley's endorsement of that sentiment in his speech.

Probably some of the Greeley orators, who are just now engaged in the work of coaxing the foreign-born citizens to vote for their chief, can give some satisfactory explanation of this matter.—Don't all speak at once.

DEACON BROSS has been bamboozled into the support of Greeley by a promise that when Horace White goes abroad as French Minister he will be promoted to the chief editorship of the Chicago Tribune.

A REFORM NEEDED.

One of the most serious charges brought against Republican office holders by the Democratic press and speakers, is that they have wantonly violated law, and trampled upon the rights of the people. However little truth there may be in the majority of these charges, it is nevertheless true that upon them our opponents mainly rely for success. They assert, for instance, as the "Liberal" organ of this city did a few days ago, that Gov. Oglesby, while in office, misappropriated the public funds, and drew from the treasury large sums of money for his private uses. Knowing the charge to be false in every particular, they still hope that it may operate in their favor before it can be contradicted and its fallacy exposed.

But let us see whether the official integrity of some of the "Liberal" leaders is entirely without blemish—so pure indeed as to warrant them in attacking the acts of their Republican opponents. In 1871 Hon. Gustavus Kœrner, the coalition candidate for Governor, received from Gov. Palmer the appointment of Railroad Commissioner, and for his services in that capacity draws from the State treasury an annual salary of $3500. The second section of the law under which he was appointed provides that "no person appointed as such Commissioner shall, during his term of office, be in any manner employed by or connected with any railroad company."

The reason for this provision is obvious, but Mr. Kœrner, in the very face of the prohibition quoted, has continued to act as an attorney in railroad cases before the circuit court of St. Clair county. It is true that he has not been the regular attorney of a railroad corporation, but his son and law partner, Gustavus A. Kœrner, is the attorney of one of the roads passing through Belleville, and as such has the advice and assistance of his father in the preparation and conducting of cases. The Belleville Advocate of last Friday, in speaking of this matter, says:

> Being a member of the Legislature, which was in session for many months during the past two years, G. A. Kœrner was necessarily absent when the terms of the St. Clair Circuit Court were held. In his absence, Gov. Kœrner frequently appeared for the Illinois and St. Louis Railroad in court, usually, however, excusing himself by stating that his son, who was attorney for the road, was at Springfield. In one case the Governor argued a demurrer to a declaration filed on behalf of the railroad company, and on its being overruled he re filed pleas, one of which was written in his own hand-writing, and signed by the firm name G. & G. A. Kœrner. In another, a motion having been made to dismiss an appeal, taken by said railroad company, for want of a sufficient bond, Gov. Kœrner argued the motion, for the company, entered a cross-motion to amend, and filed a new bond, with himself as security, for the railroad company.
> In these and other cases the railroad company had the advantage of the great legal knowledge and skill of Gov. Kœrner, without remuneration doubtless, the only consideration moving the Governor being the natural one of love and affection for his son. Yet his appearance for the road in the absence of his son was an unintentional violation of the spirit of the law, which manifestly intends that those officers should keep in a position to act with the utmost impartiality toward all the railroads in the State.

In view of this flagrant violation of law upon the part of one of the Railroad Commissioners, is it to be wondered at that the hopes of relief from the grinding oppressions of railroad corporations, which this law had caused the people to cherish, should be so cruelly dashed to the earth? Is it any wonder that the law has failed to accomplish the reforms aimed at, when one of the officers entrusted with its execution so signally fails in his duty? And does it argue very much for "reform" when this same recusant officer comes before the people, asking for the highest office in their gift? Gov. Palmer is a great stickler for a strict observance of law. He is also the self-appointed champion of the people in their contest with the railroads, and professes to be an enthusiastic advocate of the doctrine of State control over railroad corporations. But he appointed Gustavus Kœrner as one of the agents of the people to carry out this great principle of reform, and though the latter persistently violates the law under and by virtue of which he holds his office, our great "Reform" Governor not only continues him in the position but favors his election to a still higher office.

But the people will repudiate both in November.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

The many friends of the Hon. W. T. Moffett are exceedingly anxious that he should become a candidate for re election as one of the representatives in the legislature from this district Mr. Moffett, during the sessions of the last legislature, proved himself to be a careful, attentive, and intelligent representative. Not given to making speeches he nevertheless made his influence felt in the House, and long before the close of the first session he had succeeded in winning for himself the respect and confidence of all the members. His re-election would be a fitting recognition of his services, and would be in every way satisfactory to the Republicans of this county.

Mr. J. H. Pickrell, of Harristown, has also been spoken of as a suitable candidate for Representative, and his friends throughout the country are exceedingly anxious that he should be nominated. Mr. Pickrell is too well known to need any endorsement at our hands. Engaged as he has been all his life in one of the leading industries of the country; he has formed an extensive acquaintance, not only throughout the State, but in nearly every portion of the Union. He has probably had as fine opportunities for forming correct opinions concerning the wants of the people of this State as any man in it, and being a gentleman of the broadest views and the most comprehensive intelligence he would make an able and efficient representative. He has always been a Republican, and is in every respect a most worthy man. If nominated he would receive the cordial support of the party.

The latter said neither he, nor those for whom he spoke, wished to depreciate the great services of Grant as a military leader, nor cast stigma upon the noble army which maintained the Union intact. He had belonged to the Republican party almost from its inception, and advocated its cause almost at the peril of his life. New issues have sprung up, and old parties are dissolving to make room for new ones. The President has surrounded himself with corrupt political tricksters and reckless military pets. The Liberal movement is inaugurated as a remedy for these evils; it is founded on the aspirations of a large majority of the American people; and Horace Greeley's election is a forgone conclusion.

In response to loud calls, John Wentworth made a characteristic speech in support of Greeley.

The crowd dispersed shortly after 11 o'clock, with cheers for the Liberal ticket.

THE following is from the Washington Republican. Is it not a startling condemnation of the Democracy, and of Mr. Greeley, that the murderers, robbers and villains of the confederacy are unanimous for him? How do Republicans relish such companionship?

Colonel Leventhorpe, of Caldwell, is the candidate for Auditor on Mr Greeley's ticket in North Carolina. During the late war he commanded a rebel regiment and won the distinction of the most brutal and inhuman monster that ever wore a confederate's uniform. His military career in Randolph county, in that State, placed him on the same eminence of infamy with Wirz and Bradley Johnson. Randolph county was during the late rebellion a steadfast Union county, and refused to be drawn in to the vortex of secession. The majority of her citizens not only refused to enter the rebel service, but when they were drafted fled into the woods. The confederate authorities finally determined to bring Randolph to terms, and the gallant Leventhorp was selected as the fitting instrument to carry out the inhuman orders that were given him. With a regiment of soldiers he marched into that county and arrested the wives and daughters of every man who had shown his devotion to the Union by refusing to bear arms against his country.

This scoundrel, whom the New York Tribune is now endeavoring to elect Auditor of North Carolina, imprisoned these women in a pen, and for days and days deprived them of the common necessaries of life that he might extort a confession of the place of concealment of their husbands and fathers. The sufferings that these unfortunate women underwent at the hands of this military monster Leventhorpe form the darkest chapter in the history of the war. Many of them while they were thus incarcerated gave birth to children, and were made in a thousand ways to endure the most horrible torments. As a last resort to make them disclose their secrets he compelled them to place their thumbs on the edge of a fence and upon a board placed over their fingers in this position ordered his soldiers to seat themselves. All this is a matter of record and cannot be successfully denied. This is one of the men with whom Mr Greeley is so anxious to shake hands across the bloody chasm.

We would call the attention of our readers to the sale of marble mantles, head stones, tablets, grave stones and tomb vases, now offered by R. B. Mohegan, at No. 15 Priest's Block. This well merits the attention of the citizens of Decatur, it is the best, as well as most beautiful, ever offered in this city, and will be sold at cost, for one week. July 30 1w

PROSECUTION RESUMED

Geo Bacon testified: Am acquainted with Alexander Stiers, his reputation for truth and veracity is good

Mr Fisher testified to the same

John Lichtenberger: Know Stires, have heard his reputation discussed, think it is good

Mr Holt: Have known Mr Stiers since last December; am acquainted with his reputation—it is good

Alexander Veatch testified: Have known Mr Stires for ten or twelve months. From what I have heard I would call his reputation good

Cross examined—Have heard three or four speak against him

Court adjourned until 1½ o'clock

Court convened at 1½ o'clock

WITNESSES FOR THE DEFENSE

Benjamin F. Berry testified: Am acquainted with Walton and Forrest, did not know Musselman—was with Forrest in the church, saw the hilt of a knife as it stuck in his belt, saw Walton sitting on the other side of the church, saw Forrest work his way out of the church, did not see Walton go out at the time

Cross examined—Went to Decatur with Walton and Forrest—went to Oakley and then to church with them, set about half way from the door to the pulpit, Forrest and I stood against a bench, both against the same bench, Walton went then and went over to the other side of the house; don't know whether I saw Walton sit down or not, saw the knife while at Decatur and on the way home, and again saw the hilt in church, he had on a coat and an overcoat, don't know how long I stood there after Forrest; saw Forrest after he went out of the church

Ray Cooper testified: Am acquainted with Walton and Forrest, was at the church some very few minutes before we went into it, something was said between Forrest and Musselman in the church, saw Musselman go out and Forrest followed. Walton was sitting behind me nearer the door, Forrest and witness stopped on the steps, Musselman was standing on the steps, saw Walton come out and walk down the steps—walked down in the crowd, saw Walton go eight or ten feet from the steps. Forrest walked out toward Walton, don't recollect hearing Forrest say anything to Walton, didn't see anybody standing close to them, heard Walton say to Forrest, Don't go, saw Walton lead Forrest out of the crowd after he had struck Musselman

Cross examination—Went to the church with Forrest and Walton, Berry, Walton, Forrest and witness went to the church together, went to the church about 8 o'clock, think Forrest went into the church with me, went about three or four rods from the door; was out to see to my team; don't know whether Forrest went into the church; saw Forrest out ... at that time; Forrest went in with me the second time; I went in, went two or three seats from the door, Walton sat behind me on the first seat next the door, or one in front of it, was in the church the second time about 20 or 25 minutes before I went out again; did not see Forrest trip Musselman, did not see Walton on the outside when I went out, Walton went out in a minute or two. Walton went to the crowd and Forrest went to where Walton was; saw Forrest strike Musselman once or twice, saw Musselman when he was staggering around towards the door

After the close of the evidence M. B. Thompson, Esq, District Attorney, summed up the testimony for the prosecution in a speech of about three quarters of an hour's length. He was followed by John R. Eden, Esq, for the defence in an able speech of about one hour and a half

The court then adjourned until this morning

At 8½ o'clock the Court assembled, and A. B. Bunn, spoke one hour and fifty five minutes in a brilliant and stirring address in behalf of the prisoner

Hugh Crea, Esq., then wound up, on the part of the prosecution, speaking in a clear and forcible manner, reviewing the whole course of the trial and examining the evidence adduced

After which the jury retired and the Court adjourned until 1½ o'clock

Cross examined—Went to Decatur with Walton and Forrest—went to Oakley and then to church with them, sat about half way from the door to the pulpit, Forrest and I stood against a bench, both against the same bench; Walton went round and went over to the other side of the house; don't know whether I saw Walton sit down or not, saw the knife while at Decatur and on the way home, and again saw the hilt in church; he had on a coat and an overcoat, don't know how long I staid there after Forrest; saw Forrest after he went out of the church.

Ray Cooper testified: Am acquainted with Walton and Forrest, was at the church some very few minutes before we went into it, something was said between Forrest and Musselman in the church; saw Musselman go out and Forrest followed. Walton was sitting behind me nearer the door; Forrest and witness stopped on the steps; Musselman was standing on the steps, saw Walton come out and walk down the steps—walked down in the crowd, saw Walton go eight or ten feet from the steps. Forrest walked out toward Walton; don't recollect hearing Forrest say anything to Walton; didn't see any body standing close to them; heard Walton say to Forrest, Don't go; saw Walton lead Forrest out of the crowd after he had struck Musselman.

Cross examination—Went to the church with Forrest and Walton, Berry, Walton, Forrest and witness went to the church together, went to the church about 8 o'clock, think Forrest went into the church with me, went about three or four rods from the door; was out to see to my team; don't know whether Forrest went into the church; saw Forrest out [illegible] at that time Forrest went in with me the second time; I went in; went two or three seats from the door, Walton sat behind me on the 1st seat next the door, or one in front of it, was in the church the second time about 20 or 25 minutes before I went out again; did not see Forrest trip Musselman, did not see Walton on the outside when I went out, Walton went out in a minute or two. Walton went to the crowd and Forrest went to where Walton was; saw Forrest strike Musselman once or twice; saw Musselman when he was staggering around towards the door.

After the close of the evidence M. B. Thompson, Esq., District Attorney, summed up the testimony for the prosecution in a speech of about three quarters of an hour's length. He was followed by John R. Eden, Esq., for the defense in an able speech of about one hour and a half.

The court then adjourned until this morning.

At 8½ o'clock the Court assembled, and A. B. Bunn spoke one hour and fifty five minutes in a brilliant and stirring address in behalf of the prisoner.

Hugh Crea, Esq., then wound up on the part of the prosecution, speaking in a clear and terrible manner, reviewing the whole course of the trial and examining the evidence adduced.

After which the jury retired and the Court adjourned until 1½ o'clock.

BARNUM'S WORLD'S FAIR

Is everywhere and by everybody conceded to be the Largest, most Elaborate, and Attractive Combination of Exhibitions ever known, and remains absolutely without a parallel in the history of the world. In addition to thousands of entirely novel and interesting features never before seen, sufficient of themselves to constitute a first-class exhibition, the collection contains also the First and Only Living Group of Monster Sea Lions ever seen in this country. They were captured in the North Pacific by an expedition sent out expressly for the purpose by Mr. Barnum, at a cost of $30,000. Also four Wild Fiji Cannibals, captives of war, lately ransomed from King Thokambau by Mr. Barnum, at a cost of $15,000. Live Digger Indians, from the Yo Semite Valley, the only living Giraffe in America, A monster Black Rhinoceros, Numidian and Babylonian Lions, Black Leopards, Maylayan Tapir, Giant Abyssinian Ostrich, twenty-four Camels and performing Elephants, White Deer, Vlacks Varcks, Alpine Nondescript, Emus, Cassowary.

The Great Horse-Riding Goat, "ALEXIS,"

FROM ALEXANDRIA, EGYPT,

Jumps through hoops, over banners, and otherwise performs on horseback many of the difficult feats of the most skillful circus rider.

The Museum is full of rare living Historical and representative Curiosities, Wonderful Human Phenomena, [illegible], including "ADMIRAL DOT," the famous California Dwarf, 14 years old, 25 inches high, and weighs only 15 pounds—four times smaller than Gen. Tom Thumb; the "WHAT IS IT"; Infant Esau, or Bearded Child; a baby born without arms; Sleeping Beauty, Dying Zouave, Young Lady Bell Ringers; a marvelous collection of moving animal, musical and mechanical automatons, the most exquisite productions of science and art; the wonderful Kaffre Snake Charmer, Mead Abdul; Anaconda and Boa Constrictors, 20 feet long; gorgeous Telescopic Golden Chariots, 40 feet high; great Street Procession, worth going miles to see; besides, a miniature world of magnificent representatives specimens of Rare Living Wild Animals, Birds, Fishes, Insects, Reptiles and Marine Monsters, from all parts of the earth.

And in the Department of the Hippodrome and Circus, which is strictly moral and high toned, there are [illegible] the Great Double Ring, in the Grand Entree Pageant, 100 Performers, Equestrians, Acrobats, Gymnasts, Knights, Heralds, Arabs, Mamelukes, Turks, Tartars, Greeks and Ladies in Mediæval Costumes, presenting a scene of royal magnificence never before witnessed. The performance in the Hippodrome will be interspersed with an unusual variety of acts by a large corps of the most eminent Bareback Riders and noted Acrobats in the world, including the great MELVILLE and his Talented Family.

☞ Every feature will be exhibited as advertised. The only Exhibition in America recognized and indorsed by both the religious and secular press, and daily visited by eminent clergymen and divines. The first and only show in the world that uses a DOUBLE CIRCUS RING, and requires a Double Circus Troupe of Performers, Acrobats, Gymnasts, etc.

Free Admission to all who purchase the Life of P. T. Barnum, written by himself, nearly 960 pages, 32 full-page engravings. Steel portrait of the author; muslin, gilt, reduced from $3.50 to $1.50.
